COURSE INTRODUCTION

This course will provide students with the skills and knowledge to take blood samples from patients.

COURSE PRE-REQUISITES

As a prerequisite for admission delegates will ideally already be working in a clinical role prior to undertaking the training.

COURSE TOPICS

• Overview of Venepuncture and Cannulation • Health, Safety and the vital importance of Infection Control • Anatomy of the arm • Correct selection of Injection sites • How to draw blood safely • Application of tourniquet's • Avoidance of common injuries

COURSE BENEFITS

This course is perfect for professions such as Doctors, Nurses, Phlebotomists, Complementary Health Care Practitioners and Health Club staff who need to refresh their skills.

ASSESSMENT METHOD

Practical Assessment